

RELEASE IN PART
B6

From: Mills, Cheryl D <MillsCD@state.gov>
Sent: Thursday, September 30, 2010 11:07 AM
To: H
Subject: FW:

-----Original Message-----

From: williamsbarrett [redacted]
Sent: Thursday, September 30, 2010 10:10 AM
To: Minyon Moore; Mills, Cheryl D
Subject: Re:

nice that the country he loves so much loves him back.

-----Original Message-----

From: Minyon Moore
To: Maggie Williams
To: Cheryl D Mills
Subject:
Sent: Sep 30, 2010 6:45 AM

Newsweek's Ben Adler: "Why is Bill Clinton So Much More Popular Than Barack Obama?" Here's a fun fact from the latest NBC/Wall Street Journal poll: Bill Clinton is the most popular political figure in the country.

The former president, who never won an outright majority of the popular vote and was impeached by Congress, enjoys a 55-23 favorable/unfavorable rating. Clinton left office with an approval rating of 68 percent according to the CBS poll at the time, so his continuing popularity is not surprising. LINK

Sent from my Verizon Wireless BlackBerry

B6